More About Us...

- Target population: children/ youth ages 6-18, and their families (child maltreatment prevention and substance abuse prevention services focus on all children and their families)
- Services are provided @ NO COST to families (some services such as clinical substance abuse treatment services are billed to Medicaid and state dollars but there is not a co-payment)
- Programs and services are delivered in community settings (homes, schools, other provider offices and of course here at the Juvenile Assessment Center and CommuniCare)

United Way – A Key Partner

- The United Way funding is only 3% of our 06-07 budget, but it is the only operating revenue we receive for basic functions. It drives our organization in many ways.

We need your support – How?

- ☑ Join one of our Boards or Committees – delinquency prevention, youth substance abuse, child maltreatment, mental health system of care, youth leadership development...you name it, we have a spot for you!
- ☑ Get involved in one of our annual or quarterly special events – Barbecue sale, Bids for Kids, Red Ribbon / Day of National Concern about Gun Violence, Legislator's Breakfast, Bowl-A-Thon (youth substance abuse prevention), Summer Camp (youth substance abuse prevention), Strengthening Families (Collaborating with CCMHC and others to prevent serious – emotional disturbance, substance abuse, and other youth and family problems), etc.
- ☑ Donate cash – annually or more frequently, to help us raise operating dollars. We must raise dollars outside of our grants and contracts to cover our operating expenses....please consider contributing to CommuniCare to help us achieve the best outcomes for children and their families!

Thank You, From Our Hearts to Yours

We would not be here without the support and guidance of so many – including the County of Cumberland, NC DJJDP, Governor's Crime Commission, CCMHC, Community Development, WFDC, ONDCP/SAMHSA, Exchange Club of North Fayetteville, Sam's/Wal-Mart, the United Way of Cumberland County, Cumberland Community Foundation, among many others including our private contributors --- thank you for caring about children and their families. We could not do it without you.
